

Linking to the Outdoors/Food and Sustainability

National Sustainable Schools Conference Workshops

Facilitator:	Lucinda Kirby
Organisation/School:	Food for Life Partnership
Conference:	Bristol, 14 th July 2009
Name of workshop:	Sustaining School Grounds Projects
Workshop description:
Food and Sustainability workshop facilitated by the Food for Life Partnership (FFLP). Activities include looking at British Food Culture today, looking at the sustainability of various foods, looking at low carbon food and how sustainable food can be incorporated into the school campus, curriculum and community. Corpus Christi school, in Oldham, have been working with the FFLP for the last 18 months and representatives from the school will give an overview about how FFLP work has changed and inspired their school.
Conference themes which the workshop covered:
Sustainable Food and Climate Change
Workshop audience:
All
Workshop format:
Presentation regarding Food for Life Partnership. Participate activities and Discussions
Workshop outputs:
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Eclectic group of attendees all with their own interests in food and sustainability 2. Sustainability is a personal judgment call e.g. better to buy local strawberries or organic ones from Spain? 3. There are changing attitudes regarding food culture today
Related Resources:
Presentation FFLP Slideshow SusSchs Sustainable Food and Climate Change Workshop outline
Related Web Resources:
The Food for Life Partnership website has plenty of information, videos and examples of successful campaigns: http://www.foodforlife.org.uk

