

Linking to the Community

National Sustainable Schools Conference Workshops

Facilitator:	Marilyn Donahue
Organisation/School:	CHANGE for Low Carbon Leadership
Conference:	London, 8 th July 2009
Name of workshop:	Engaging with the Community
Workshop description:
Participants will fill out their own personal action plan for working with their community
Conference themes which the workshop covered:
A whole-school/holistic approach to sustainability, covering the three C's of the framework – campus, curriculum and community.
Workshop audience:
All people involved with schools, parents, neighbors, volunteers, school staff, governors, headteachers
Workshop format:
Presentation-case study, participative discussion and a planning activity
Workshop outputs:
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Identify help on funding – use what is there</li> <li>2. Ask for specific help and everything needed to help with a school community problems</li> <li>3. Link into ongoing community resources</li> </ol>
Related Resources:
Presentation
Related Web Resources:
Extended Schools encourages all schools to forge links with their local community, offering local meeting space and encouraging pupils to contribute to, and interact with, the local community. More information can be found on Teachernet: http://www.teachernet.gov.uk/wholeschool/extendedschools/	